ORDER

On February 25, 2009, United States Magistrate Judge William A. Knox recommended that plaintiff's claims regarding a false conduct violation be dismissed, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, for failure to state a claim for which relief can be granted. Judge Knox further recommended that plaintiff's motions for preliminary injunctive relief be denied. The parties were advised they could file written exceptions to the recommendation, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C). No exceptions have been filed.

A review of the record convinces the court that the recommendation of the Magistrate Judge is correct and should be adopted.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Report and Recommendation of February 25, 2009, is adopted. [14] It is further

ORDERED that plaintiff's claims regarding a false conduct violation are dismissed, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, for failure to state a claim for which relief can be granted. It is further

ORDERED that plaintiff's motions for preliminary injunctive relief are denied. [6, 9]
